

Akiba-Schechter Jewish Day School hosted more than 220 guests at the Sept. 9 unveiling of “Mike’s Place,” the Preschool’s new, state-of-the-art Playground. Named for the late alumnus Michael Evans, the playground provides an experience in nature for Akiba’s youngest students, while extending the classroom outdoors. The playground is designed by Landscape architect Juli Ordower. Pictured is a child playing on the new playground.
